Eight awards – including one new one – were handed out during the annual Olds and District Chamber of Commerce Business Awards celebration.

The event was held Thursday, Oct. 15 at the Alumni Centre.

The Business of the Year award for firms with 15 or fewer employees went to A Gallery of Floors.

A & W Restaurant was named Business of the Year for firms with 16 or more workers.

This year, a new award, the Better Business Bureau Business Ethics Award, was handed out. It went to Mountain View Dodge Chrysler Jeep Ram.

The Community Spirit award, which goes to for-profit businesses, was presented to Tedd's Food Mart.

The Community Spirit award for non-profit organizations went to the Central Alberta Pregnancy Care Centre.

The award for exceptional customer service by an employee was presented to Cindy Smith of Advanced Telecommunications (Olds) Ltd.

The Youth Employee of the Year award went to Jake Herspiegel of Cervus Equipment.

The People's Choice Business award went to 96.5 CKFM/Rock 104.5.

This is the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Olds and District Chamber of Commerce, so the theme this year was "20 years strong, 1995-2015."
